

"The Liberal Arts and Culture Center had the pleasure of starting the 1st LACC training program within the duration between July 21st, 2019 to August 8th, 2019. The purpose of the Training was to support Egypt-Japan schools (EJS) with an intensive English Language course as well as capacity-building courses to satisfy the urgent need of the EJS staff for good preparation for the academic year 2019-2020.

The trainees also attended the following topics:

Japanese Culture, Interactive Communication skills, Learning through play, and Logical Thinking & problem-solving"

During the training program, Prof. Mona Gamal Eldin Ibrahim, Dean of EECE School, granted "The Package of Green Corner" to Egyptian Japanese School in Alexandria to serve about 230 students. "The package of Green Corner" is a group of books and materials to aware the children and their families, in a simple way, on the climate change problem and the effect of human activities on the environment. Also prof. Mona Gamal Eldin participated in training the EJS Teachers with a session on "Green Corner" definition and how to use it in the libraries.
